REPLY TO DEFENDANTS BRIEF IN OPPOSITION TO
PLAINTIFFS MOTION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER
AND REQUEST FOR THIRTY DAY CONTINUANCE TO ANSWER

To; The Honorable Judge Rambo, and Judges of this Honorable District Court;

1. Plaintiff has rec. a "brief in opposition" to my motion for T.R.O. from defendants counsel, on September nineteenth, 2001.
2. Plaintiff is unable to form proper reply at this time, because some requested discovery material has yet to be provided by defendants counsel, who has told plaintiff, he is in fact working on this right now. Plaintiff expects this material shortly here.
3. Plaintiff is of the good faith belief, that defendants have been less than honest or forthcoming with their counsel, and does not wish to wrongfully act against defendants counsel, until this matter is ascertained, for certainty.
4. Plaintiff requests thirty day continuance to answer this matter, that he may rec. the discovery in question, be able to formulate a proper answer, and inform defendants counsel, of any dishonesty involved, by pleading, and finding defendants counsel is an innocent victim of deceit, allow such counsel to amend or withdraw his pleading as filed.

WHEREFORE: It is prayed this Honorable Court GRANT petitioner a thirty day extension to answer this matter, that discovery may be provided, and proper answer formulated, and defendants counsel made aware of any impropriety or deceit here.

Respectfully Submitted;

Derrick R. Coombs #0F1800

ORDER

And now, upon consideration of this matter, the request for thirty day extension is hereby GRANTED, that plaintiff may obtain missing discovery, and formulate proper answer to this matter.
